Cover Explanation

Published in 1863, Jules Verne's Five Weeks in a Balloon is the novel that helped him to perfect his classic style of combining an exciting storyline with vivid historical and geographical descriptions. Collins International Foundation and Foundation Plus

Authors: Peter Clarke, Arabella Koopman and Fiona MacGregor

Provide a firm foundation at early year stage in English, maths and science in preparation for primary education

Collins International Foundation and Foundation Plus is an early years programme for English, maths and science that can be used across two years leading up to the first year of full primary education.

The programme introduces young children to phonics and early literacy skills, maths concepts and science content in an age-appropriate way through topic-based discovery and activity-based learning. It provides plenty of learning opportunities through games, active play and hands-on exploration.

Careful progression ensures children develop the skills they need to be ready for English, maths and science in their first year of primary. The materials in Foundation Plus build on what is covered in Foundation to ensure that all students will be fully prepared for the learning ahead no matter which programme or curriculum their school is following.

The underlying themes – common across English, maths and science – allow the courses to be used together so that children build up knowledge, skills and vocabulary holistically. It can also be used alongside other courses to provide a comprehensive early years programme.

Developed in consultation with expert practitioners, the courses benefit from current thinking and best practice in early years education and have been informed by a wide range of curricula and frameworks used in international schools.

Reading Anthologies

Brightly illustrated Reading Anthologies offer a carefully selected collection of colourful stimulus materials to help support the teaching of key concepts in English, maths and science as well as the development of early literacy skills.

The English course has a Reading Anthology for each term at each level. Maths and science each have a Reading Anthology per level.

Reading and speaking

1 Read these short poems aloud in groups.

A limerick
 There was a young girl from Gooole,
 Who took her pet snake to school.
 It squiggled and wriggled
 And the whole class giggled,
 Her teacher didn't think it was cool.
Anonymous

Poems
 There are many different ways of writing poems. Some poets use patterns or shapes, others use rhyming words and rhythm.

Limericks
 Limericks are nonsense poems. They all have the same pattern.

- There are always five lines.
- Lines 1, 2 and 5 have the same number of syllables and they rhyme.
- Lines 3 and 4 have the same number of syllables and they rhyme.

Calligrams
 A calligram is a shape poem. The words in the poem are arranged in a shape or a picture.

A calligram (a shape poem)
Spaghetti

The trouble with spaghetti is it gets you in a fearful tizz, for when you turn it round and round until you think you've got it wound, no matter how you twizzle it, you always get one dangling bit.

by Noel Percy

An acrostic poem

Acrostic poems
 Acrostic poems use the letters of a word or name. Each line of the poem starts with a letter from the name or word, rhythm.

2 Which poem do you like best? Why?

- Did it make you laugh?
- Did it make you think?
- Was it fun to read aloud?
- Which poems have words that rhyme?

Write a poem

1 Work with a partner or alone. Write a shape poem or a limerick or an acrostic poem.

2 Display your poem in class and read it aloud to the class. Read with as much expression as possible. You want your classmates to enjoy the poems as much as you do!

Reading and listening

1 Listen and follow as your teacher reads these two poems by Judith Nicholls.

Riddle

I am pear-drop space-hopper rest-on-a-tail
 fast as a rocket,
 and what's in my pocket
 small as a snail!
 I'm shorter than elephant.

taller than man,
 I hop-step-and jump
 as no creature can.
 My jacket is fur,
 my pocket too;
 a joey hides there ...
 I am
 KANGAROO!

Turtle facts

Sea turtles are the gentle giants of the ocean. They spend most of their time in the ocean's deepest waters, so you aren't likely to see one while you are swimming. However, they come ashore to lay their eggs on the beaches where they were born.

Sea turtles are close relatives to two other types of turtles: tortoises and freshwater turtles.

Like a shield, a turtle's shell protects it from being eaten by predators.

These three types of turtles have lots in common.

Whether they live on land or in water, turtles breathe air. They hatch from eggs. Turtles are cold blooded. They can't control their body temperature, so they warm themselves in the sun when it is cold, and cool down under rocks or in water when it is hot.

Turtles are reptiles.

A complete systematic synthetic phonics programme

Big Cat Phonics for Little Wandle Letters and Sounds Revised has been developed in collaboration with Wandle Learning Trust and Little Sutton Primary School. This complete SSP programme comprises classroom materials published by Collins Big Cat and a Little Wandle online resource package that together provide a consistent and highly effective approach to teaching phonics.

Little Wandle Letters and Sounds Revised provides an updated progression based on 'Letters and Sounds: Improving Rates of Progress 2021', published by the UK's Department for Education (DfE). It is aligned with the higher expectations of the 2014 National Curriculum, the Phonics Screening Check and the 2019 Ofsted Inspection Framework.

- DfE validated and used in more than 4000 schools in the UK
- All books matched perfectly to the Little Wandle progression and support all the Letters and Sounds phases
- Classroom resources include flashcards, grapheme charts, wall friezes and Keep-up Teacher's Guides
- Full teaching and assessment support available through a membership available direct from Little Wandle – go to littlewandlelettersandsounds.org.uk for full details

What to do - identifying children for daily individual support sessions

Use the Letters and Sounds assessments (every six weeks), as well as assessment within the daily lesson, to identify children who need either individual or group keep-up. Do not let children fall behind – take action as soon as possible. Use the assessment again after three weeks to check that these children have filled their gaps.

Chapter 1

Dani Binns found the old toy box in the spare bedroom. Her big sister Tara had suggested choosing a toy from it. Every time Dani picked one, it sent her off to try out a job ... and have an exciting adventure.
What toy shall I choose? she thought, looking inside.

Hmm ... a ruler?

As she held the ruler, her hand tingled ... then her arm ... then her whole body. What job would I need a ruler for? she wondered, as she felt herself spinning away through space and time ...

Chapter 6

"Look!" shouted Tara, pointing at the robot. "The claw of that robot has brake fluid on it. I bet that robot is splitting the brake pipe!"

Ayesha nodded. "Looks that way. We'll get an engineer to the production line to fix the robot as fast as possible."

Ayesha went to talk to the foreman about the robot.

Tara heard one of the engineers tell another to tow away the faulty car.

"Take it to the crash test area. The other three cars with faulty brakes are there already. We'll keep them safe until their brakes can be fixed. There aren't any more crash tests today, so they won't be a danger to anyone."

Tara was horrified. Ortez! He'd gone to fetch one of those faulty cars. He was about to drive a car with no brakes!

Dreaming of dolphins

How much do you know about dolphins? Look at the photographs and read the information about swimming with dolphins.

Did you know that in some places you can swim in the ocean with wild dolphins? To do this, you must use special equipment. You must wear a wetsuit, a mask and a snorkel, and fins. The equipment helps you stay safe and lets you breathe when your face is under the water.

Dolphins can swim very fast and like to leap out of the water. They roll from side to side.

They look very cute, and are often friendly and curious when they meet humans. Dolphins are wild animals and so people must respect the animals and their environment.

Do you want to swim with dolphins? Why? / Why not?

Important facts about dolphins

- Dolphins live all over the world in seas and oceans. Some dolphins even live in rivers.
- Dolphins eat fish, shrimps, squid and octopus. They hunt in groups.
- Dolphins can swim up to 40 km per hour.
- Dolphins call each other with clicking and squeaking sounds.
- A male dolphin can live up to 30 years. A female dolphin can live up to 50 years.

Dolphins must be protected. We must look after our sea. We must not throw litter and plastic into rivers and the oceans. We must also stop overfishing.

Why must we look after the sea?

Let's Talk and Let's Think bubbles prompt learners to think about the topics in their own context

Science in context

6.3 Science and the environment

Large parts of the planet Earth are covered in water. Water is very important. Animals, humans and plants all need water to survive.

1 Look at the picture. What does it show?

Some places on the Earth do not have much water.

Key words

- Earth
- water
- waste
- save

2 Look at the pictures. ▲ Describe what you can see.

3 How are the places different?

4 What do you think it is like to live in these places?

88

We can use what we know about science to help the world around us. We know that water is important so we must not waste it. We can do things to help save water.

5 Look at the picture. ▲ How does it say we can save water?

6 What could this girl do to save water while brushing her teeth?

Topic 6 Earth and Space

Activities

- 1 Play a game about how we can waste water and how we can save water.
- 2 Design a game. Think of the different ways that we waste water and ways that we can save water. Then play your game.
- 3 Design a poster to help people save water. Draw pictures and add labels to explain the ways we can save water.

I have learned

- Water is important for all living things on Earth.
- We can help the planet by saving water.

7.3 Are we nearly there yet?

Holiday camps
An alternative to caravans or camping was going to spend a week at a holiday camp, like Butlin's or Pontins. You could stay in a chalet. This had a little more space. Meals were provided in huge dining rooms, where hundreds of people were fed at the same time. You had to make sure you went to the right sitting or you missed your meal!

Entertainment
There were all kinds of entertainments, both day and night, including indoor amusements in case it rained. Top entertainers would perform in the ballroom some evenings, and there were all kinds of competitions, from 'Glamorous Granny' to snooker and darts. There was something to do every minute of the day, from breakfast at 8 a.m. until midnight!

Theme parks
During the 1970s and 1980s theme parks, like Alton Towers

7.3 Are we nearly there yet?

and Drayton Manor Theme Park, became popular places to go for a day out in the UK. New-style holiday resorts, like Center Parcs, appeared. Here you could cycle, walk or swim and have a 'healthy' holiday in attractive surroundings. Resorts and places to stay have had to keep updating themselves to continue to attract people who want to have fun on holiday.

One of the latest trends is 'glamping' – camping in a little bit more luxury, with beds, bed linen, heating and cooking facilities provided. Things have certainly changed since the 1960s!

A 'glamping' pod

Glamping:
This is a short way to say 'glamorous camping' – everything is more luxurious when you are glamping, as you have a proper bed, heating and private bathroom.

Let's think about it!
Make a graph or chart showing all the different places everyone in your class went on holiday last year. How many people went in an aeroplane for their holiday?
Talk to your parents about the kinds of holidays they had when they were children. What kinds of things did they do when they were on holiday? What is the same, and what is different, between then and now?
Some people think glamping only started recently. See if you can find out about glamping in the past.

4.2 Growing up in Ancient Egypt

"Today is the happiest day of my life – we have finally adopted a child."
Egyptian woman, writing in 1875 BCE

Caring for children
Ancient Egyptians loved children, and often had large families. Many babies died from infection and disease – some historians suggest more than one in three babies died. To help counteract this, mothers would breastfeed their children until they were three years old, and then wean them onto vegetables and a gruel or porridge made from stewed wheat or barley sweetened with honey or dates.
Children would wear no clothes until they were around 10 years old, making it easier to keep clean. They would have all their hair shaved off, apart from one long plait, or side-lock, that hung down one side of their head. Shaving off the side-lock was a sign that they were now an adult.

Fun and games
Much of life would be spent outside, playing. Everyone would learn to swim, but also to be careful of the crocodiles and hippopotamuses in the River Nile. Boys would learn to fight with sticks, spears and bows and arrows so they could hunt and fish or fight in the army of the pharaoh when they were older. Girls would learn to grind corn, cook, spin and weave and generally look after the household. But there were plenty of games too – many we still recognise today. Leapfrog and tug-of-war were popular, as were spinning tops, ball games, dolls and pull-along toys. Board games were very popular, the two best known were called Snake and Senet.

4.3 Growing up in Ancient Egypt

Pets were very popular. Many Egyptian families would have cats or dogs, birds or even monkeys as household pets, but these animals would be expected to earn their keep too. Cats would kill rats and mice in the granary, dogs would help with hunting, and monkeys were trained to climb tall trees and pick fruit and pass it down to people waiting below.

Jobs and careers
Children were expected to obey their parents without question, and were expected to help around the house from an early age. One Egyptian word for 'child' translates as 'servant', and another describes boys as 'walking sticks for their fathers'. Boys were expected to learn their father's trade and follow in his footsteps.

Think about it!

- Why might adopting a child make this woman so happy? What does that tell us about attitudes towards children in Ancient Egypt?
- Do you think it was fun being a child in Ancient Egypt?
- How different was life for rich and poor children?

Let's do it!

- Find out how you play Snake and/or Senet. Describe the rules to others in your group.
- Write a story about a day, or an event, in the life of a young Egyptian boy or girl. Remember to make it realistic. Use examples from this unit, or that you have discovered for yourself.

MULTIPLICATION, DIVISION AND FRACTIONS

FRACTIONS OF NUMBERS

Jacob is finally out of the caves. He begins the short walk home, pleased with how many materials he found. He hopes he has enough iron to craft a golem. Jacob needs 4 blocks of iron and a pumpkin. He spots some pumpkins in the distance.

1 Jacob can see 8 pumpkins.
Circle half of the pumpkins and complete the number sentence below.

$\frac{1}{2}$ of 8 =

To make the iron golems, Jacob needs to use shears to craft the pumpkin into a jack o'lantern. Then he decides to make some more jack o'lanterns, with torches inside, for the house.

2 Jacob has 8 pumpkins in his inventory.

Circle one quarter of the pumpkins for Jacob to craft into jack o'lanterns and complete the number sentence.

ADVENTURE ROUND-UP

TIME TO RECHARGE

Jacob arrives home tired. His adventure into the nearby cave system was exciting, but scary at times. He found lots of materials for crafting. Before he empties his inventory into chests, he stops for some dinner. Cali cooked up lots of lovely baked potatoes while he was gone. With a few of these, his hunger is gone and he spends some time dividing out his materials and items.

CRAFTING AN IRON GOLEM

Cali uses the iron ingots they have both collected to start crafting an iron golem to protect their home. First she combines the iron ingots into blocks and places them in the garden. Then Jacob gives her the jack o'lantern to put on top. This iron golem will help to fight mobs and keep them safe.

READY TO GO AGAIN!

Whenever Jacob and Cali are in battle, the equipment gets damaged. They craft some new swords and armour for both of them to use. As the day ends, both heroes are tired but looking forward to the next chapter of...

CREATIVE WRITING

PLANNING 2

All writing should aim to be interesting for the reader. Whether it is a simple story for three-year-olds or a complicated non-fiction text for an adult, it must be planned to include ideas and information that the audience will want to hear or find out about. This all needs careful planning and thinking about the ideas to include.

If Sami and Kim are going to craft a conduit, they will need a lot more nautilus shells. Luckily Sami and Kim know all about drowned and where to find them.

1 Shade in the four boxes which contain an idea that would be unsuitable for a book about mobs.

villagers	zombies	creepers	beetroot	ore
spiders	mining	cows	shipwrecks	drowned

2 Read the ideas below for a story about Sami in the deep ocean. Which would you be most likely to include? Tick two.

Sea creatures	<input type="checkbox"/>
Sami's favourite food	<input type="checkbox"/>
Sami's farming abilities	<input type="checkbox"/>
Sami's swimming skills	<input type="checkbox"/>

3 Sami and Kim decide to split up to try to find more drowned to battle with. They each drink their Potion of Water Breathing to stay underwater for longer.

Which of these ideas would you be most likely to include in a story about Kim in the deep ocean? Tick three.

The scene is described with lots of detail about the ocean Kim can see – a nearby shipwreck and dolphins.	<input type="checkbox"/>	Kim discovers an underwater ruin, but danger is not far away as drowned start to approach.	<input type="checkbox"/>
