

Collins

Another world

Written and Illustrated by
Freya Billimoria

Another world

Written and Illustrated by
Freya Billimoria

Once, there was a girl named Sabrina. She was a tall, skinny, dark haired girl. She lived a normal life, but she did not know what would change her life forever.

It was a Monday morning and she got up early for school, vacation had just ended and she was about to start going to a new school. She got ready early cause she didn't want to be late. She was nervous but excited too. She got into the school bus and waved goodbye to her parents.

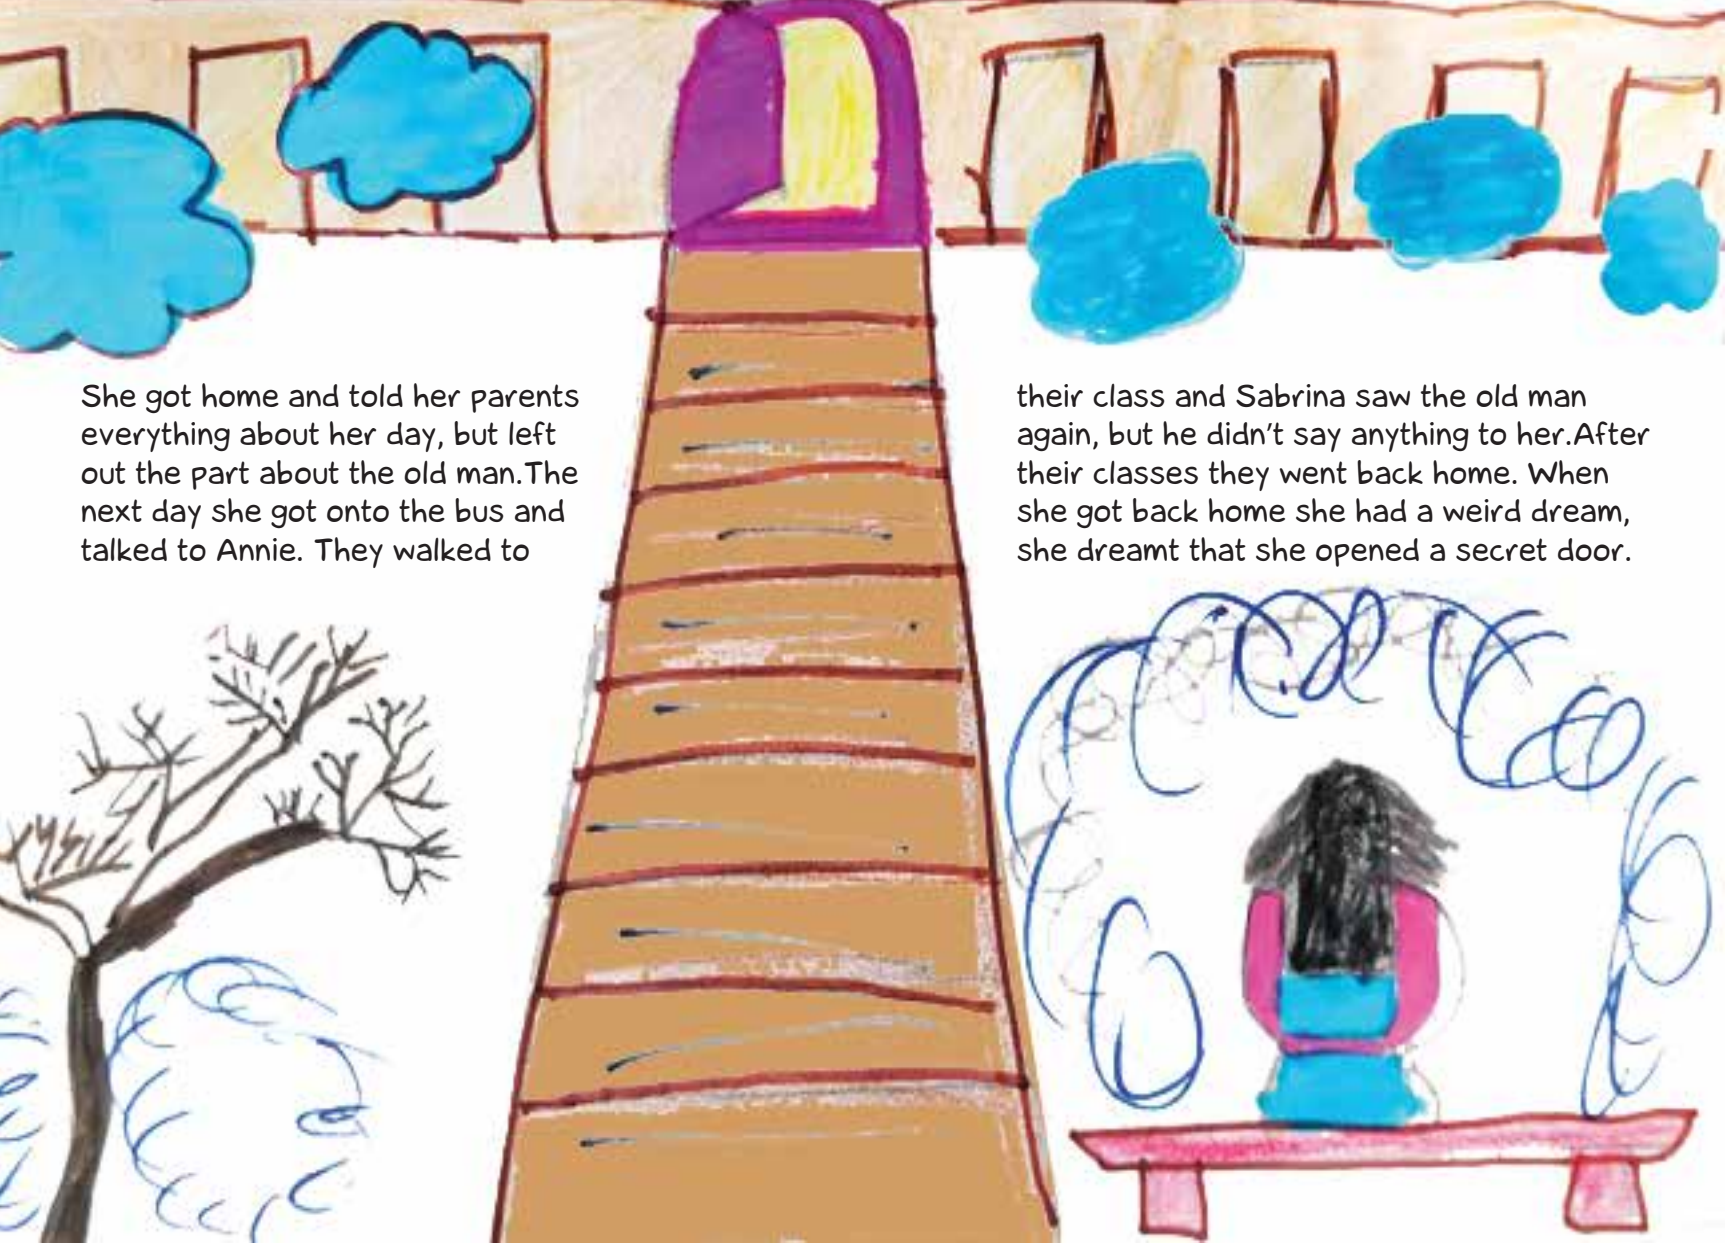

Then she met a girl, her name was Annie. Annie and Sabrina eventually became friends. As they were walking to school they met a peculiar old man, Annie told Sabrina that he was the janitor. As soon as Annie went inside, the old man told Sabrina, "Something bad is going to happen very soon." Sabrina ignored what he said and got to her class.

She got home and told her parents everything about her day, but left out the part about the old man. The next day she got onto the bus and talked to Annie. They walked to their class and Sabrina saw the old man again, but he didn't say anything to her. After their classes they went back home. When she got back home she had a weird dream, she dreamt that she opened a secret door.

Sabrina woke up the next day but something felt different, she just ignored it and got on her bus. She saw Annie and she started talking to her. Annie said, "Do I know you?". Sabrina was surprised, she asked Annie, "You really don't remember me?" Annie said, "I'm sorry but I don't know you, you must be thinking of someone else." Sabrina was shocked but she just went to her classes, but she didn't see the old man. She thought that the old man had something to do with this.

At night she hoped that everything would be okay. The next day she thought everything was going to be okay, but Annie still didn't recognise her. She got worried and started thinking about why this was happening. She thought that she went into another world and she started thinking about how to get back to her world.

She rushed to find the old man because she thought he had something to do with this. She went to the school to find him but he wasn't there. She asked some people if they knew where he was, and she eventually found him. She asked him, "Why is this happening to me?". The old man said, "It will be fine". Sabrina didn't know whether to trust him or not, but she didn't know what else to do. So she went back home.

The next morning she thought that Annie wouldn't recognise her again but she did, Sabrina was relieved. They enjoyed their day together. The next day she was ready to meet Annie, but Annie wasn't there. She asked people if they knew where Annie or the old man was but they all said that they had never ever met either.....

Freya Billimoria loves reading, playing Monopoly and eating pizza.
If she could have a super power, she would want the ability to read people's minds, so that she could know what's troubling them. Freya aspires to become an Author and hopes for world peace.

Mentor
Poonam Dasilva
Dhanashri Ubhayakar

Another world

Sabrina just moved to a new town, but she is unaware of the scary, strange things that will happen next.