

Magic Secrets

REVISED EDITION

by Rose Wyler and Gerald Ames
Pictures by Arthur Dorros

HARPER

An Imprint of HarperCollinsPublishers

I Can Read Book® is a trademark of HarperCollins Publishers.

Magic Secrets. Text copyright © 1990 by Rose Wyler and Gerald Ames. Illustrations copyright © 1990 by Arthur Dorros. All rights reserved. Manufactured in China. No part of this book may be used or reproduced in any manner whatsoever without written permission except in the case of brief quotations embodied in critical articles and reviews. For information address HarperCollins Children's Books, a division of HarperCollins Publishers, 195 Broadway, New York, NY 10007.
www.icanread.com

Library of Congress Control Number: 89-35841
ISBN 978-0-06-444153-7

15 16 17 18 19 SCP 19 18 17 16 15

This is a book of magic tricks.
The tricks look hard,
but they are easy to do.
Try them and see.
Make a pencil disappear.
Push a glass through a table.
Pop a grape
through your head.
Surprise your friends
and make them laugh.
Be a magician!

HOW MAGIC WORKS

Meet Presto the magician.
He shows you his hat.
It is empty, but wait. . . .

Presto puts his hat on the table
and waves his magic wand.

He says a magic word—“Abracadabra.”

Then he picks up his hat
and pulls out a rabbit!

Where was the rabbit?

It was in a black bag
behind the table.

When Presto picked up his hat,
he slipped the bag into it.

Then he pulled out the rabbit.

Presto says,

“I eat goldfish. Yum yum!”

He puts his hand into a fishbowl and takes out a goldfish.

See it wiggle!

Presto pops the fish into his mouth.

Did Presto really eat a goldfish?
No, he ate a piece of carrot.
Presto had the carrot up his sleeve.
He let it drop into his hand.
He wiggled it and made you think
it was a goldfish.

That is how magic works.
The magician lets you see only what he wants you to see.
He makes you think
what he wants you to think.
Presto fooled you—
he made you watch the wrong thing.

