

Everyone can be a reader with Barrington Stoke

For over 25 years, we've been pioneering super-readable, dyslexia-friendly fiction to help every child become a reader.

Our shorter novels are ideal for:

- reluctant readers
- children with SpLD such as dyslexia, Irlen Syndrome and visual stress
- anyone wanting a quality quick read
- EAL learners
- children with low self-esteem
- children with short attention spans or hyperactivity

We hope you enjoy browsing our titles; please do contact us if we can help with any further information.

“I've always admired the team at Barrington Stoke, their passion for stories and for making stories accessible to children for whom reading is a challenge”

SIR MICHAEL MORPURGO

All our books are dyslexia-friendly

Award-winning authors ensure well-written texts

Age-appropriate stories matched to the age of the reader not their reading level

Shorter length allows readers to build stamina and confidence

Expert editing ensures a smoother read that still challenges the reader

Short chapters provide plenty of rest breaks

Unique dyslexia-friendly font makes reading easier

Off-white, heavier paper helps reduce visual stress

Great design and enticing covers make the books instantly appealing

Accessible layouts and spacing

Illustrations aid comprehension and break up the text

How to browse our hi-lo range

Each of our hi-lo books are given both an Interest Age and a Reading Age, to help you match the right book to the right child.

Firstly look for the section with the most appropriate Interest Age. This refers to the actual age of the reader.

The Reading Age refers to the text's level of difficulty, based on our specialist language edit. Head to pp.4–5 to see sample spreads from each level.

We submit all our books to be levelled for Accelerated Reader, with quizzes available. Look out for the AR symbol throughout our catalogue to quickly find the level for each book.

To see a full list of AR levels for our range, contact us or your local sales rep.

It took until 17 May for the seventh camp to be set up at 2,325 metres - over four and a half miles above sea level. To get this high had taken more than a month from base camp. That's not surprising when you consider how to find safe routes up the mountain. Daily life is harder, and to breathe oxygen you to make it

Nearly 20 tonnes of slippy soap and animal fat had been slugged over the alpine to help the heavy ship slide down into the water more easily. Even so, it still took 42 seconds for Titanic to reach the water.

of its size and incredibly high levels of luxury. Work on Titanic would now continue until its maiden voyage the following year.

Titanic could hold more than 2400 passengers and they were divided into three different sections depending on how much they had paid for their tickets.

Large super-readable text

Sleep that knits up the ravell'd sleeve of care,
The death of each day's life, sore labour's bath,
Balm of hurt minds, great nature's second course,
Chief nourisher in life's feast.

LADY MACBETH
What do you mean?

MACBETH
Still it cried 'Sleep no more' to all the house;
'Glamis hath murder'd sleep; and therefore Cawdor
Shall sleep no more - Macbeth shall sleep
no more.'

LADY MACBETH
Who was it that thus cried? Why, worthy Thane,
You do unbend your noble strength to think
So brainsickly of things. Go get some water
And wash this filthy witness from your hand.
Why did you bring these daggers from the place?
They must lie there. Go carry them, and smear
The sleepy grooms with blood.

MACBETH
I'll go no more:
I am afraid to think what I have done;
Look on't again I dare not.

LADY MACBETH
Infirm of purpose!
Give me the daggers. The sleeping and the dead
Are but as pictures; 'tis the eye of childhood
That fears a painted devil. If he do bleed,
I'll gild the faces of the grooms withal,
For it must seem their guilt.

[Exit LADY MACBETH. Knocking within.]

MACBETH
Whence is that knocking?
How is't with me, when every noise appals me?
What hands are here? Ha! They pluck out mine eyes.
Will all great Neptune's ocean wash this blood Clean from my hand? No; this my hand will rather
The multitudinous seas incarnadine,
Making the green one red.

52 | ACT 2 SCENE 2

George snapped, "You ain't gonna put nothing over on me."

Lennie pleaded, "Come on, George. Tell me. Please, George. Like you done before."
"You get a kick outta that, don't you? Awright, I'll tell you, and then we'll eat our supper ..."

George's voice became deeper. He repeated his words rhythmically as though he had said them many times before. "Guys like us, that work on ranches, are the loneliest guys in the world. They got no family. They don't belong no place. They come to a ranch an' work up a stake and then they go into town and blow their stake, and the first thing you know they're poundin' their tail on some other ranch. They ain't got nothing to look ahead to."

Lennie was delighted. "That's it - that's it. Now tell how it is with us."
George went on. "With us it ain't like that. We got a future. We got somebody to talk to that gives a damn about us. We don't have to sit in no bar room blowin' in our jack jus' because we got no place else to go. If them other guys gets in jail they can rot for all anybody gives a damn. But not us."
Lennie broke in. "But not us! An' why? Because ... because I got you to look after me, and you got me to look after you, and that's why." He laughed delightedly. "Go on now, George!"
